

Member Profile | Constantinos Kazamias

Constantinos Kazamias is an Associate Lawyer in the Corporate Department of SCORDIS, PAPAPETROU & Co LLC since 2024. He deals with any out of court matter that may arise, such as drafting, reviewing and negotiating contracts. He is also involved in preparing documents for mergers, partnerships, and employment agreements. Constantinos also seek to ensure that businesses adhere to laws and industry regulations. Before joining our firm, Constantinos did his traineeship at another reputable law firm in Cyprus, as well as a number of internships in law firms in both Cyprus and United Kingdom.

Areas of practice:

- Corporate Law
- Commercial Law
- Securities & Stock Exchange
- Mergers & Acquisitions
- Joint Ventures
- Contract Law
- Immovable Property

Languages:

- Greek
- English

Major Engagements:

Constantinos has been involved in numerous cases since joining our firm, some of which are:

- Drafting Sales and Purchase Agreements for immovable property cases.
- Attending meetings with clients that are listed in the Cyprus Stock Exchange and drafting minutes and announcements that are published in the Stock Exchange.
- Preparing documents for various corporate matters, such as mergers and acquisitions, transfers of shares, and increases in share capital of firms.
- Advising clients through legal opinions about important questions that arose.

Academic & Professional Qualifications:

- B. A (Law (Honours)), University of Cambridge (2022)
- LL. M 'European Trade and Commercial Law', Durham University (2024)
- M.A (Honours), University of Cambridge (2025)
- Advocate (Cyprus) (2023)