

Member Profile | Giorgos Hadjinicolaou

Giorgos Hadjinicolaou joined SCORDIS, PAPAPETROU & Co LLC as an Associate lawyer with our Litigation and General Practice department in September 2026, following several years of successful practise at another firm, where he gained extensive experience and expertise advising clients on a broad range of legal matters, especially in civil litigation, contract law, and immovable property law. He is an Advocate and registered Mediator.

Areas of Practice:

- General Civil Litigation
- Contract Law
- Immovable Property

Academic & Professional Qualifications:

- LLB (Hons), University of Essex (2016)
- LPC & LLM in Professional Legal Practice, University of Law (Bristol) (2018)
- Advocate (Cyprus) (2018)
- Register of Mediators for Civil Dispute (other than Commercial Disputes) (2020)
- Register of Mediators for Commercial Disputes (2020)

Languages:

- Greek
- English

Additional Information:

Substantial experience handling immovable property (real estate) matters, including advisory, due diligence, drafting and negotiating sale and purchase, lease, distribution, land development and exchange agreements, applications to and dealing with relevant governmental bodies, as well as relevant dispute resolution, including rent control, commercial disputes, evictions and specific performance.

Part of the team that delivered a seminar on the new legal framework for trapped real estate buyers in Cyprus, including guidance on the implementation of the 2025 legislative amendments.