

Member Profile | Stavriana Charalampous

Stavriana Charalampous is an Associate in the Corporate Department of SCORDIS, PAPAPETROU & Co LLC.

During her studies, Stavriana gained legal experience at Freeths LLP in London and as a member of the University of Essex Law Clinic, where she assisted with a variety of legal matters. Since joining the firm in 2022, she has worked in a range of cases, including commercial disputes, immigration cases, and corporate and public company matters. She was also engaged in the preparation of interim commercial court applications and other legal documentation in multi-million cases of high-profile clients. She now focuses on corporate and commercial transactions, including shipping-related matters and mergers and acquisitions. Her work involves domestic and cross-border transactions, regulatory compliance for publicly listed companies on the Cyprus Stock Exchange, and company formation. She also drafts corporate court applications, including those related to M&A transactions. Stavriana is currently a member of YoungShip Cyprus, a professional network dedicated to fostering the next generation of shipping professionals.
